First Trimester

The first trimester has come to an end. Now is a perfect time to reflect and work with your children on their homework habits and to make changes as needed. Homework is a necessary step to help reinforce key concepts that are learned at school. This provides students with the opportunity to practice the skills needed for learning. Homework also helps students develop responsibility, organization, and time management. If you notice that your child is having difficulty completing an assignment, it is a good idea to review the instructions with them together. If there is continued trouble with the directions or with the material, it may be necessary to get in touch with your child's teacher for further assistance to help with the situation.

Thanksgiving Week School Schedule

A reminder that there is a full day of school on Monday, November 21 as well as an early dismissal (11:45 a.m.) on Tuesday, November 22. All schools will be closed Wednesday-Friday, November 23-25.

A little more about HIDDEN:

When Wren Abbott and Darra Monson are eight years old, Darra's father steals a minivan. He doesn't know that Wren is hiding in the back. The hours and days that follow change the lives of both girls. Darra is left with a question that only Wren can answer. Wren has questions, too.

Years later, in a chance encounter at camp, the girls face each other for the first time. They can finally learn the truth—that is, if they're willing to reveal to each other the stories that they've hidden for so long. Told from alternating viewpoints, this novel-in-poems reveals the complexities of memory and the strength of a friendship that can overcome pain.
